

WOMEN IN Livingness Workshop

Understanding the Unfoldment of the True Woman

Have you ever felt your power and sass only to question it the very next day (or moment)? Why does 'living in our power' become so elusive when it comes to living it consistently.

This workshop will unpack the traps that keep the true woman from knowing she is All that. And that's just for starters.

WIL 2020 sets forth the steps that unfold the true woman back to herself so she can not only remember her naturalness and beauty but ever deepen with it and enrich us all by her lived way.

Learn to read where you are at in your own old unfoldment and take-home invaluable keys that can be applied to the realness of your day to day life.

With her signature 'read-the-room' style, Natalie Benhayon brings a warmth and intimacy - and an immediacy - that ensures that no two presentations are the same. If you thought you'd been to a Women in Livingness event before, be prepared to go to a whole new level. And if this is your first time... welcome back.

This is a 'call your girlfriends and make a day of it' kind of occasion.

We look forward to the unfoldment.
